Recitation:

Your TAs will give the recitation grade. They will be based on problem sets, and other assignments that your TAs and I think may be useful. The TAs will explain their grading policy more thoroughly in recitation.

Homework Assignments:

You will be given optional problem sets (on EconPortal) that may be very helpful in your preparation for exams. I will cover all necessary material to complete these problem sets and prepare for exams in class. In addition, I will post some extra study questions before each exam. These will not account for part of your grade, but they may be very helpful. You will also be given assignments in recitation.

In-class Assignments:

There will be 7 in-class assignments during the semester each worth 1% of your total grade (under either option). If you miss an in-class assignment, you will receive a zero unless you are ill and can provide proof (e.g. a letter from the student health center), or have another valid excuse (e.g. religious observances). If you miss an in-class assignment with a valid excuse then the weight of your final will be increased. In-class assignment dates can be found on the course outline.

Clicker Points:

We will use “clickers” during lectures to answer questions as we cover the material. Much more information on clickers can be found here.

Exams:

There will be four exams, and a cumulative final. Tests will consist of multiple-choice questions and occasionally some longer problems. Exams (other than the final) are not cumulative, but the material does build on itself so it is important to understand all of the concepts as we go. Exams will be given in class on the days listed. If you miss an exam, then the weight of your final will be increased. There will be NO makeup exams, and NO EXAMS WILL BE DROPPED!!

Exam Schedule:

Exam I: Thursday, February 7th

Exam II: Tuesday, March 5th

Exam III: Tuesday, April 9th

Exam IV: Thursday, April 25th

Final Exam: Monday, May 6th at 1:30pm in Math 100

If you have three or more final exams scheduled on the same day, you are entitled to arrange an alternative exam time for the last exam or exams scheduled on that day. To qualify for rescheduling final exam times, you must provide evidence that you have three or more exams on the same day, and arrangements must be made with your instructor no later than the end of the sixth week of the semester (Friday, February 22, 2012).

It is actually not possible for our exam to be the third one on Monday, May 6th, so our exam time will not be altered for this reason. If you do have 3 or more finals on one day, then you should be sure to talk to your professor for the last final scheduled on that day before 02/22/12 – I will not allow you to switch the final for this class just because you were late in notifying your other professor.

Additional Notes:

(1) If you qualify for accommodations because of a disability, please submit to your professor a letter from Disability Services in a timely manner (for exam accommodations provide your letter at least one week prior to the exam) so that your needs can be addressed. Disability Services determines accommodations based on documented disabilities. Contact Disability Services at 303-492-8671 or by e-mail at dsinfo@colorado.edu.

If you have a temporary medical condition or injury, see Temporary Injuries under Quick Links at Disability Services website (<http://disabilityservices.colorado.edu/>) and discuss your needs with your professor.

(2) *Campus policy regarding religious observances requires that faculty make every effort to deal reasonably and fairly with all students who, because of religious obligations, have conflicts with scheduled exams, assignments or required attendance. For this class, please try to let me know early in the semester if you think you will have any conflicts. I will strictly adhere to all university policies. See full details at http://www.colorado.edu/policies/fac_relig.html
A comprehensive calendar of the religious holidays most commonly observed by CU-Boulder students is at <http://www.interfaithcalendar.org/>*

(3) Students and faculty each have responsibility for maintaining an appropriate learning environment. Those who fail to adhere to such behavioral standards may be subject to discipline. Professional courtesy and sensitivity are especially important with respect to individuals and topics dealing with differences of race, color, culture, religion, creed, politics, veteran's status, sexual orientation, gender, gender identity and gender expression, age, disability, and nationalities. Class rosters are provided to the instructor with the student's legal name. I will gladly honor your request to address you by an alternate name or gender pronoun. Please advise me of this early in the semester so that I may make appropriate changes to my records. See <http://www.colorado.edu/policies/classbehavior.html> and http://www.colorado.edu/studentaffairs/judicialaffairs/code.html#student_code

(Regent Law, Article 10, amended 11/8/2001). CU-Boulder will not tolerate acts of discrimination or harassment based upon Protected Classes or related retaliation against or by any employee or student. For purposes of this CU-Boulder policy, "Protected Classes" refers to race, color, national origin, sex, pregnancy, age, disability, creed, religion, sexual orientation, gender identity, gender expression, or veteran status. Individuals who believe they have been discriminated against should contact the Office of Discrimination and Harassment (ODH) at 303-492-2127 or the Office of Student Conduct (OSC) at 303-492-5550.
